THE EXPERIENCE OF THE ASSEMBLY

The people...

The people...

A wide-angle photograph of a large, modern auditorium. The ceiling is a prominent feature, consisting of a curved, white, grid-like structure that allows natural light to filter through, creating a pattern of light and shadow. The seats are arranged in a semi-circular pattern, and the stage area is visible in the background. A large, circular stained-glass window is centered on the back wall. The overall atmosphere is bright and spacious.

Te Ngākau Atawhai – Heart of Mercy: In Aotearoa, the Mercy Cross, central to Catherine McAuley’s spirituality, is supported by a pair of koru. The koru represent the unfolding of new life and link our Mercy story to the spirituality of Māori and the ancient lore of this land
